CATALOGUED BY EDWARD COGAN, 101 WILLIAM STREET, NEW-YORK, Dealer in Coins, Medals, Books, Engravings, Autographs, &c.

101 William Street, New-York, }
November 20th, 1866. }

Dear Sir :

I beg to inform you that I have received from my friend, Mr. Lightbody, his Collection of Coins and Medals, with instructions to offer them for Sale at Public Auction, and which I propose doing, through Messrs. Bangs, Merwin & Co., of 69½ Broadway, in the early part of next month.

To the great majority of Collectors Mr. Lightbody is well known as a Collector of rare and valuable specimens of American Coins; and the assortment I am about to offer will afford an excellent opportunity to those who are desirous of doing so, to add to their collections many very rare and valuable Coins, not only in the Washington and Colonial series, but also some exceedingly fine Cents and Pattern Pieces.

No charge will be made for Catalogues, excepting for duplicates, and those will be 50 cents each.

It is my intention to price some Catalogues, after the sale, at One Dollar each, and shall be glad to receive early information from those requiring them. Hoping to receive the same kind patronage on this occasion as has been extended to me at all former sales, and assuring my friends I will do the best I can for their interest, I remain

Yours faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

Pieces.

- 275 00 722 1792 This piece is known as the Roman Bust - - - Hirman
 Washington, and is by far the rarest of any of the Washington cents, and realized more than any other American coin known, having been purchased by the owner for $480,
 obv. "Washington, President," the head of Washington being totally different from any other known by American Collectors,
 rev. the word cent directly over the eagle which is different from any other on the Washington pieces, with expanded wings, only six stars, the condition is splendid and will be a great acquisition to an American collection I believe not more than four have ever as yet been discovered, size 21

 The pieces described above were purchased by myself some five years since, under an assurance from the seller that he believed them to be original, and I have never been able to meet with any person who had ever seen them before. I regret not being able to furnish any positive information of when, or by whom, they were struck.—EDWARD COGAN.
 The pieces are very rare, and may not unfairly be considered unique and of considerable interest.
